

HALLELUJAH HILLS

A Christian community + a product line whose revenue funds mission.

WHAT IT IS

A Christian community being founded in South Carolina: a small village of manufactured homes around a chapel, a bell tower, a working garden, and a common house.

Also a product line of seventeen tools the community uses at its own doors and makes available to other Christians.

WHAT WE BELIEVE

Conservative evangelical, Bible-faithful â the apostolic faith of the historic Church (Apostles' + Nicene Creeds), salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone, Scripture as the inerrant final rule. Welcoming Baptists, Presbyterians, evangelical Anglicans, Methodists, Lutherans, Free Church, Bible Church, Pentecostal, charismatic, non-denominational.

WHAT IS NEW

- 50%+ of net product revenue flows to mission giving.
- Every dollar in and out is published openly (The Send).
- The first product is the Greeter: scene-aware hospitality at the door, never trapping or coercing the visitor.
